

Premiere

A benefit for
Elder Vern Harper
Cree Spiritual Elder and Medicine Man

Inspired by a true story, this is a tale about two teenage boys, native and non-native, who come together under troubling circumstances during a rite of passage journey in Canada's north. The play explores the themes of bullying, racism and the violence we live with.

Created by: Jerry Brodey
Robert Morgan
Performed by: Jerry Brodey
Directed by: Robert Morgan

Wednesday, March 19, 2008

At the Workman Theatre,
Centre for Addiction and Mental Health
1001 Queen Street West, Toronto (Queen and Ossington)

6:30pm Doors open for:
Tarot Readings, Art Auction and Native Drumming

8:00pm "SOLO" Performance

Tickets: $20

Available on-line: www.eldervernbenefit.ca

Or by phone: 416-690-8470

Following SOLO, the award-winning
TORONTO PLAYBACK THEATRE leads audience response,
dialogue and storytelling!

TORONTO
PLAYBACK THEATRE

Toronto
Daré